The three main engines on the shuttle produce 370,000 pounds of thrust apiece at sea level. Each has previously been test fired on an individual basis, leaving the cluster firing series as next to last test before the shuttle can be sent into-

SSC names '78 valedictorian, salutatorian

William Kergosien and Stephen Johns have been named valedictorian and salutatorian respectively of the 124th graduating class at St. Stanislaus, according to Brother Eldon Crifasi, principal.

Commencement exercises will be 11 a.m., Saturday, May 13, in Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church, Bay St. Louis. Kergosein, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Kergosien of Bay St.Louis, is completing his sixth year at SSC. He is president of the National Honor Society and was named the school's Star student for '78. The valedictorian represented his school at Mississippi Boy's State last summer and at the Presidential Classroom in Washington, D.C. this past February. United's Corps application was originally dated Aug.19, 1977, and revised January 6, 1978. The Corps public notice of the application is dated April 10, 1978.

Iris Way of the Corps' Mobile office said any public comment or questions concerning the application should be directed to her office by calling 205-690-2582 or writing Box 2288, Mobile, 36628.

United has published a public notice stating that "Any person, firm, association or corporation deeming that the granting of the...application will be truly detrimental to their rights in the waters (of the Jourdan River) may protest in writing to the Board of Water Commissioners the granting of the permit; setting forth all reasons why (it) should not be approved."

"Most protests we receive to applications of this type are usually satisfied once the protestors have received adequate information on the effects of the project," Pepper added.

Q. My father is severely disabled and thinks he might be eligible for SSI payments. I've heard it takes time for an SSI claim to be processed. Is there any way he can get some financial help while he's waiting for his claim to go through? He has no income of his own.

A. A claimant who is otherwise eligible and is found presumptively disabled (or blind) can get SSI payments for up to 3 months while it is being decided if he or she is disabled (or blind). When your father applies for SSI, the people in the social security office will tell him if he can get these payments.

Q. I'm going to retire later this year. What documents should I take with me when I apply for my social security retirement benefits?

A. You should take your social security card (or a record of your social security number); proof of your age, such as a birth or baptismal certificate made at or shortly after birth; and your W-2 form for the previous year or, if you're self-employed, a copy of your last Federal income tax return. You also will need your marriage certificate if your spouse is applying for benefits on your record, and your children's birth certificates if you're applying for high schools.

Q. My wife just learned that she has permanent kidney failure. If she is eligible for Medicare, when would her coverage start?

A. When a person is eligible for Medicare because of permanent kidney failure, the time his or her coverage starts depends on the kind of medical treatment the condition requires. If a person is receiving maintenance dialysis treatments, Medicare protection starts on the first day of the third month after the month the treatments begin, Coverage can start earlier though if a person goes into a hospital for a kidney transplant. Current safety stickers are a new tourist's must Almost 20,000 people were issued citations by the Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol during 1977 for infractions of the inspection law, and the total may be higher for 1978 according to Hansel Reeves of the Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol's Motor Vehicle Inspection Bureau.

Motorists traveling on Mississippi highways recently have probably noticed special MHSP roadblocks with officers checking for expired inspection stickers, driver license and license plates.

Reeves said, "The expiration of any of these constitutes a direct violation of the law and such a violation can result in a fine up to $50 and six months in the county jail, and-or both."

Reeves said the reason for stepped up enforcement in this area is, "For several years now, faulty equipment has been the fifth leading cause of fatal accidents in Mississippi. This is an area that the automobile owner can totally eliminate. There is no need for people to die in automobile accidents because of faulty equipment. If something is out-of-order on a car that makes it dangerous to drive and the owner doesn't have it repaired, it becomes the responsibility of the Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol to issue citations in an effort to rid our highways of potential killers."

Reeves said there are approximately 1,350 inspection stations throughout Mississippi, which includes numerous garages and most automobile dealers. For information as to where the locations are, please contact the Motor Vehicle Inspection Bureau office a 982-1212 extension 260, or write them at P.O. Box 958, Jackson 39205.

Junk cars are eyesore tradition with the Mississippi Coast

The Sea Coast Echo

Dear Sir:

Your headline for seeing phenomenal growth for Hancock brings to mind another phenomenal growth - that of discarded automobiles on Highway 90. Who is responsible for allowing automobile parts-companies to spread and spread the unusable parts all over our countryside? For one driving into Hancock County from the west this is an awful sight!

Yours truly, Jean Reeves

Garden club thanks

Editor The Sea Coast Echo

Dear Sir:

We would like to express our thanks and appreciation for the coverage you gave the Bay-Waveland Garden Club's Spring Pilgrimage, of March 29th, 1978.

The contributing factor in our having a most successful Pilgrimage of approximately eight hundred guests, or more, was due in fact to the excellent news media, newspapers, T.V., radio and magazines in our area and out of State.

tate. The gracious hospitality of the Hosts and Hostesses opening their lovely homes and gardens was appreciated by all of our guests, some of whom expressed surprise that the Pilgrimage was complimentary. To the best of our knowledge the Mississippi Gulf Coast is the only area in the United States offering complimentary tours. This is Council of Garden Clubs, sponsoring Gulf Coast garden clubs and has been in effect since the beginning of their pilgrimages thirty-one years ago.

Again our thanks and best wishes, Sincerely,

Beat 1, to the planning and zoning commission as beat commissioners, supervisors accepted the port and harbor commission's claim docket, and approved advertising for bids to bring 'Red Bug 6' - the Stennis International Airport's fire fighting unit, into full operating condition.

Also, for Stennis International, they authorized the purchase, at state bid prices, of 300 lineal feet of 18 inch reinforced concrete pipe, Class 3, and one 18 inch diameter reinforced concete flared end section, for the purpose of extending drainage, in turn leading to the creation of additional tie-down space for aircraft.

Complaints concerning lack of tiedown room have been heared over the last year or more, as operators strive to increase traffic and advance the field into a reliever category for Moisant,

New Orleans. In this respect also, supervisors heard the status of plans to install an Instrument Landing Sytem (ILS) and extention of taxiway, both subject of a Federal Aviation Administration application which, though approved in principal, lacks sufficient priority to be funded in the current agency fiscal Wilson W. Webre, port director, told commissioners his group is considering alternate ways and means of obtaining needed systems without waiting for the FAA funding, even though their application was in the "impending status."

He talked of possible realignment of money obtained from the governor in the amount of $200,000 (Title 304 funds), presently earmarked for application matching monies.

Switching to road surfacing. supervisors accepted the bid of Shaw Supply Co., Inc., Perkinston, for the resurfacing of the 603-Ladner Road at $26,490:90, but took under advisement prices quoted for like task on the Lavern-Necaise and a county road within Diamondhead. A letter from the Edward A. Khayat, president, Jackson County Board of Supervisors, received favorable response, with the board going on record as backing that county in its bid to have the Gulf Regional Planning Commission retain operational control over the Metropolitan Planning Organization against possible encroachment of the South Mississippi Planning and Development District. An inventory of equipment assigned against each beat caused some confusion with several supervisors indicating items on the list were nothing more than a "blob of rust" and had been for years, or had been towed away to the dump before they ever saw them. Board Attorney Walter Gex, III, and Chancery Clerk John Rutherford, Jr. both told the county mentors to declare such items as junk and get them off the books. All the concerned items had been advertised for sale in years past and all received no bids due to their advanced stages of uselessness.

A letter from Senator John Stennis indicating his willingness to assist in any attempt to modify the 13.2 foot minimum construction elevation in low lying areas was read into the minutes. Stennis said, in part "In an effort to be of all possible assistance. I have been glad to contact the appropriate authorities at the Department of Housing and Urban Development and have expressed to them my support for the position of the Board of Supervisors (Hancock County). I have asked that they review this matter and provide me with a report of their findings."

In other matters the supervisors: -Approved the permanent appointment of Mary Fricke as superintendent of the County Home, at a salary of $650 per month; Called for the posting of 'No Diving' signs on the banks of Jourdan River at McLeod Park; Heard of a new state aid road financing program for certain, specialized sections of byway that will result in Hancock County receiving $40,000 over the next two years; Accepted the final platt of 'The Oaks'

School buses...

Our survey is not fully completed. "We feel that three more buses will be all we need at this time, but we are not really sure. We are hoping by doubling up on the routes, we will be able to keep down the amount of new buses to be purchased," McCullouch

When asked the lifetime of a bus McCullouch told council it ranged from six to 10 years, depending upon the route and care for the vehicle. We would have needed one new bus this coming school year, as it's been two years since we purchased the last bus because of the additional students using the bus we will need three instead of the one, McCullouch told Council.

According to McCullouch, the three new buses will cost $42,000, the price is a state bid price. Letter bids were sent out to local distributors and received by the school.

Emphasis was placed on the fact that every school system in the state will be purchasing new buses because of the new law, and schools getting orders in the earliest will get first delivery. McCullouch commented on the fact that the Pascagoula School System will need 20 new buses according to reports, "but we're better off then most school districts."

McCullouch, told council he was coming to them with suggestions on financing "if you have other ways, it's fine with us." He saidroom exists within the two mills law allows the system, and he gave them a chart using the two mills figure allowing for the cafeteria renovations taking place and possibly the use of some funds for the repair of the Waveland School roof.

When questioned about the Waveland School roof problems, McCullouch told council they have been working for months trying to solve the problems and come up with a new roof at the least expense to the school system.

When contacted after the meeting McCulloch said "I am elated by the response of the majority of the council giving their approval for the purchasing of the school buses in order that we may comply with Senate Bill No. 2253, passed by the recent meeting of the legislature in providing transportation for the majority of the students in our district.'

In other action council instructed Mayor Larry Bennett to enter conversation with, or write a letter to, the City of Waveland and the Hancock County Board of Supervisors on the possibility of a joint effort on reappraisal. The city clerk has received numerous phone calls from mappers and appraisers with cost estimates ranging from $300,000 to $450,000 just for Bay St. Louis.

Council feels that governmental funds will be available if the project were done on a county wide basis.

Bennett, in his report, told council Beat 3 Supervisor Oscar Peterson will blacktop Dunbar Avenue from Beach Blvd. to Ulman Ave. Council was unanimous in accepting Peterson's offer with the Bay paying the inspection fee, raising man holes, and putting fix in a few holes.

Councilman Fred Wagner brought before Council a Resolution on the plumbing code. There were some questions raised by the city's plumbing inspector on present regulations and the resolution was to help clarify the problem.

Wagner's resolution was passed unanimously. It reads:

"Whereas, a question has arisen concerning the priming of traps for floor drains and air conditioning drains as established by the ordinances of the City of Bay Saint Louis and

Whereas, there are recollections of additional ordinances having been passed making more stringent requirements concerning self-priming traps in drains, but no written record of any such ordinances.

Now, therefore, be it resolved that the City Council of Bay Saint Louis reaffirm the adoption of the Southern Standard Plumbing Code as revised, and rescinds any prior ordinances at variance with such code, and that the Council request that the Plumbing Inspector and Plumbing Advisory Board make recommendations in writing for any proposed variances from said adopted code.

Many people who need a social security number for a job or other reasons, may find they have a problem because they did not apply for their number soon enough, a social security representative said today.

People do not realize they cannot just walk into a social

VA news

Q-I am a veteran with a 60 percent service-connected disability. I have a severly handicapped child who will be 18 years of age Oct. 1, 1978. What should I do to continue to receive an additional allowance for this child?

A - Send a medical statement to your nearest VA office, between July and October 1978, which describes the type of disability, giving the facts, symptoms and diagnosis.

Q - Can I make a loan on my VA insurance policy? A - Policy loans are available on permanent plan insurance policies, up to 94 percent of the cash value, less any indebtedness. Contact the office where your insurance records are located, or your local VA office, for application and additional information.

Q - I am a World War II veteran and I have never used my GI home loan benefit. Am I still eligible? A - There is no time limitation on use of the loan guaranty benefit. Contact your local VA office for a certificate of eligibility if you do not have one.

security office and have a number issued on the spot. It takes time, the spokesperson emphasized. A person should apply for his or her number at least 4 weeks before it will be needed.

Because evidence of age, identity, and citizenship or alien status is required, a person can speed up the process if he or she has this needed information when > applying. Examples of evidence a person born in the United States can submit include:

> For age and citizenship: A birth certificate or church record of baptism is preferred, but school record, church record, state or federal census record, insurance policy, marriage record which shows age and date of birth, military discharge papers, delayed birth certificate, draft card, U.S. passport, or any other record showing age or date of birth can be used.

For identity: Driver's license, State identity card, voter's registration, school identification card, work badge or building pass, draft card or military ID, U.S. passport or U.S. identity card, credit card if signature shown, library card with signature, or any other document showing signature either photograph.

Naturalized U.S. citizens can bring their U.S. passport, naturalization certificate. U.S. citizen identity card, certificate of citizenship, or consular report of birth. Aliens should bring one of following; alien registration card 1-151, U.S. Immigration Form 1-94, AR3a, I-186, I-185, SW-434, I-95a, or I-184. Photocopies are not acceptable and all documents submitted will be returned. The spokesperson emphasized that all documents are subject to verification. Additional information and applications for a social security card can be obtained at any social security office. The address and telephone number of the nearest social security office can be found in the telephone directory under "Social Security ministration.

Emergency food stamp criteria is outlined was not a member of the household in order to get some confirmation household's need for stamps or have the household itself provide proof of its need. And no household was allowed to receive these emergency stamps more than once every six months.

Now a Federal court has ruled that it was not legal to limit a household to emergency stamps only once every six months or to require confirmation household's need before the emergency stamps could be issued.

So, a household which applied for or asked about food stamps since August 1974, may be eligible for additional benefits or a reduction in current purchase price if the household fits into either of the following groups: (1) The household received food stamps at no cost but did not begin receiving the stamps in the same month it applied. Even though the ousehold had little or no income (this would most likely mean income of less than $90 per month), it contacted a food stamp office but did not apply, or applied but did not follow up on the application, because it was felt there would be difficulty or delay in obtaining proof of its need to receive stamps immediately. (Some will although not all, of the persons in these two groups will qualify for these additional benefits).

A household which feels it fits into either of these groups should contact the nearest welfare department or contact the FNS Regional Office at the following address

VA issues caution to summer students

L. Dozler, Veterans Administration Assistant Center Director for Regional Office in Jackson, has a friendly reminder for GI Bill students who might overload themselves with summer

The Mississippi Forestry

Association announces

State University and the State

Department of Education are also co-sponsors of the students for dropping courses," Dozier pointed out. "In fact, a veteran who drops a course mid-term can find himself owing the VA money sessions. Teachers may at-expenses for participating teachers are paid by supporting industries and businesses. Teachers must pay academic credit fees.

Applications should be mailed to MFA, 620 North State

Street, Jackson, 39201.

WORKSHOP VACANCIES

"The VA doesn't pay GI Bill educational payment cut proportionately," the VA official said. That's why the VA encourages GI Bill students contemplating dropping "problem" courses to use GI Bill tutorial assistance benefits to avoid both educational and financial setbacks. It's a free service to the veteran which isn't charged against the veteran's basic educational entitlement.

The government did not pay for tutorial assistance for World War II and Korean conflict veterans, but under present law VA will pay as much as $69 a month for such help up to a maximum of $828. In addition to veterans and active duty servicemen, or at least having his monthly tutorial benefits are available to widows, widowers, spouses and children studying under VA's Dependents' Educational Assistance

> Veterans and servicemen attending school at the postsecondary level on at least a half-time basis are eligible if they have a deficiency in a subject required in an approved program of education, VA education.

Applications, certified by the veteran's school, should be made on VA Form 22-1990t within a year of the tutoring and should be submited to the VA regional office which maintains the veteran's claim folder. Campus veterans offices of local VA offices have the forms and details.

FIRE DANGER EASED Mississippi's critical fire danger situation of the past few weeks has been remedied by recent heavy rains according to State Forestry Commission officials. Spokesman Bill Colvin said that the rain has reduced the crisis to about normal for the spring, since the showers were heavy enough and widespread enough to ease the problem. Maria Carlos Carlos

MENTAL HEALTH DRIVE The Mississippi Mental Health Association, a division of the National Association for Mental Health, Inc., has named local chairmen in Hancock County for its May fund-raising effort. Heading the "Bellringer Drive" in their respective areas are Mrs. J. C. Goodloe of Clermont Harbor, Mrs. Morris Ladner of Kiln, Mrs. Walter O. Crowley of Lakeshore, Mrs. John Longo of Waveland, Miss Judy Yarborough of Bay St. Louis and Mrs. David Hamilton of Pearlington.

MISSISSIPPI FIRST PLACE-Vickie Young, 15, of Pearlington, a Bay Junior High ninth grader, placed second in the District Science Fair in Hattiesburg in March but garnered a first place tie at the State Science Fair in Jackson Saturday. She was tied in Jackson with an entry which edged her out of first place in Hattlesburg. Miss Young's winning entry which demonstrated the derivation of cellulose fiber from Pueraria Labota or Cudza, a vine commonly used to Mississippi to abate soil erosion. Vickie is now in contention to attend the International Science Fair in Anaheim, Ca., in May as an alternate. Her sister, Valerie Young, a 1977 graduate of Bay Senior High and presently attending the Air Force Academy, represented Bay Junior High once and Bay Senior High twice in international science fair competition. Vickie is congratulated here by Bay Junior High Principal W. J. Cameron. (Staff photo-Edgar Perez)

Bay netters claim PRC tennis crown

Bay St. Louis High School won the team trophy as well as the girls' doubles and mixed doubles trophies in the Pascagoula River Conference Tennis Championship held Friday at Tennis World in Diamondhead.

The Tiger netters outscored seven schools belonging to the Conference totalling 10 points by winning 10 matches during the all day tournament. St. Stanislaus and St. John tied for second with six points each, while Pass Christian was close behind with five.

Charlene Haynes and Lisa diBenedetto won the girls' doubles trophy for the Tigers in a long match against Polly Necaise and Carol Ladner of Pass Christian, 6-1, 6-2, after overcoming St. Martin's duo in the semi-finals, 6-3, 6-2.

Bay High also won the mixed doubles championship with Colin: Jones and Cynthia Collins taking the finals from Eric Rusell and Susan Gray of St. John, 6-2, 7-5.

St. Stanislaus' tennis team, playing without their complimentary girls' team from Our Lady's Academy, netted three trophies and winning In boys singles Grant

Chandler of SSC won over Lester Martin of Bay High, 2, 6-2; in the finals. Chandler upset top seeded Pat Barnes of Pass Christian, 7-6, 6-4, winning the tie-breaker 5-2, in the division opener. In boys doubles, the Rock-a-chaw duo of Tommy and Pat Wild teamed up against Robbie Boyd and Don Fayard of Bay High, winning the championship, 6-3, 6-2. The Wild brothers disposed of Jay Pott and Larry Cross of Notre Dame earlier, 6-2, 6-0, while Boyd and Fayard took Steve MSU COMING

District finals

Cynthia Jackson, anchorperson for the top ranked Tigerettes relay team, pulled a hamstring while participating in the 100 yard dash in Tuesday's qualifying trials in the District VIII track finals

"The injury looks pretty... bad." said Bay High girls', and track coach Willie Bradley. "Jackson may be out for the rest of the season, but we are hoping she will be able to run in the South State in a week and a half."

The relay team of Valada Lewis, Janet Sheppard, Gloria Hargett, and Jackson claimed first place in the 440 relay with a 50.9 time.

In the 100 yard dash, Tigerette sprinter Valada Lewis took first place in 11.6 seconds then claimed the blue ribbon in the 75 at 8.9, and the 50 yard dash at 6.2 Patricia Jackson second in the 440 dash in 65.3 seconds, then substituted for her injured older sister as anchor in the 300 and 200 yard relays in which the Tigerettes placed third.

'We were leading until the last leg," Bradley commented. "But with our anchorman out, the other teams nipped us at the wire."

The Tigerettes, having qualified in these events, will compete in the District VIII finals Friday in Biloxi.

Pass double plays stall Rock-a-chaws

By SHARON WALLS Pirate second baseman Paul Ladner and first baseman Lonnie Jenkins cooperated for two double plays as Pass Christian High School stopped St. Stanislaus, 6-3, Tuesday on the Rock-a-chaw baseball diamond.

Wayne Ulrich, undefeated in eight turns on the mound, pitched for the Pirates, giving up three hits and walking three. He also struck out two. St. Stanislaus was on the board early with a run in the first, but the Pirates blew open the top of the second with a four-run tally sparked in part by a two-run single by contribute to Pass Christian's crowning two runs. Ulrich and the Pass defense put away the final three Rock batters in order to preserve their lead:

Sophomore left-hander Scott Cox was the starting and losing pitcher for St. Stanislaus, with shortstop Todd Edwards taking over in the seventh. Edwards also got the Rocks' third hit of the day.

'The boys are really up for this game," commented Rock. Coach Fred Weems. "Pass Christian has a really strong team with some good athletes. but I always enjoy playing them because we do have a chance to win and we always have a good game."

New law geared to end 'beating on the debtor'

An employee receives a threatening telephone call from an unidentified person, telling him to send $7 to a specified address or face embarrassment from his employer.

A credit collector poses one time as a doctor, another times as a lawyer, and a third time as a law enforcement agent in conversations with a debtor.

A woman receives a letter on legal stationery informing her she will be arrested and taken to court if she does not pay her bills immediately. These practices, known in the debt collection business as "beating on the debtor," are illegal as of March 20, when the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act went into effect. reports Bonita Bridges, consumer management Cooperative Extension Ser-

wrong person or attempting to collect twice, the new law will protect debtors from abusive hardssing phone calls, N.W., Washington, D. C. 20580 publication of "debtors" lists, or the Southern Regional and misleading and false representation. It is aimed at about 5,000 professional agencies hired to collect more than $5 billion annually in debts owed to businesses or individuals.

"The law, which will be enforced by the Federal Trade Commission, does not apply to stores, hospitals, banks, credit unions or other businesses that handle their own collections," explains Mrs. Bridges.

"Collectors who violate the law will be liable for the debtor's legal fees, and may be fined up to $1,000 - plus an additional amount if the collector's methods cause the debtor to lose a job," continues the specialist. "In class-action suits, a collector specialist, Mississippi may be fined up to $500,000 or rating. Miss Sandoz also one percent of the collector's

Save money on long distance calls by dialing them yourself, the One-Plus way. Direct-dialed One-Plus calls cost less than operatorhandled, calls. Just dial 1, plus the area code (if different from your own), plus the distant number.

You'll find a map of area codes, a list of area codes for selected section in the front of your directory. If you need long distance Directory Assistance, dial 1, plus the area code (if different from your own), plus One-Plus rates do not apply to Zero-Plus dialed calls, operator-handled calls, coin telephone calls, or calls from a hotel or motel.

cities, and other information on long distance calling in the Call Guidé

Mississippi telephone users will soon benefit from a new invention from Bell Laboratories, the research and development arm of the Bell System.

Scientists there have invented a new magnet for telephone receivers. The magnet is made with Chromindur, a new alloy made of chromium. cobalt, and iron. It is faster and less expensive to process than the alloy the Bell System has been using since the 1950's to make the magnets. Besides being faster to produce and costing less, the new receiver magnets should outlast and out-perform earlier models.

The magnetic alloy might also be used in auto speedometers, electric motors, and stereo speakers. Chromindur alloy magnets are another example of the Bell System's continuing search for ways to provide you with low-cost, high quality telephone service.

Make good things happen fast by long distance.

Library seeks pen-pals for Fort Kent, Me.

The City-County Memorial Library, US-90, Bay St.Louis, has begun a pen pal program in cooperation with the Fort Kent Public Library in Fort Kent, Maine.

The project began following the local library receiving a letter from Marlene Pooler. librarian at Fort Kent. requesting help in getting pen pals for her younger library

Mrs. Pooler wrote, "I am writing to different libraries asking for support and reponse to such a program to spur the interest of our library

"We have a wall map with the places of our pen pals starred and each child has his or her picture taken to send to

"Our children are important to us and we try involving them in activities that will help them to be better citizens. "We believe a pen pal will help them to understand how Children in the area interested in becoming a pen pal with someone in Fort Kent can apply for information at the library, or call 467-5282 and ask for Mrs. Grace Rhodes,
